Twenty-second Ward.—At a meeting of the REPUB-LICAN ASSOCIATION, held at their Headquarters, Feb. 6, 1861, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the present division of the country requires at once the exercise of great fortitude and magnitude, conscious of our strength and the justice of our cause, we can look with pity upon the ravings of disappointed politicians and excited parties, &c., &c.

Resolved, That we most heartily approve of the course pursued by our distinguished Senators in Congress, and especially of his high-toned patriotism of the Hon. Wm. Seward in his recent speeches on the present crisis, and of the other members of the country respite at once to the exercise of great fortitude and magnitude, conscious of our strength and the justice of our cause, we can look with pity upon the ravings of disappointed politicians and excited parties, &c., &c.

Resolved, That the Republican Association of the XXII Ward hereby disclaims them and the course they have adopted, and are with so much ability and faithfulness pursuing

A ROMANCE OF THE ROAD.

By DR. J. H. ROBINSON.

This brilliant cheval d'œuvre of a brilliant author is almost impatient in its thrilling intensification of such chivalrous and rock-climbing scenes as made Housman famous in the days of Highway Inns; but it contains not a line to offend the moral sensibilities of any householder.
